Lily Veterans Network

United States military veterans, having succeeded in the most trying environments, possess many of the professional characteristics that Lily values most, such as teamwork and an aptitude for mission-focused work. Lily maintains a one-of-a-kind program for veterans to help them transition from military to civilian life.

Currently, 15% of Lily employees are veterans. Our mission is to increase that number by 10% each year.

In an effort to achieve this growth, Lily offers a special program for veterans who:

- Are interested in careers as commercial truck drivers but have no experience.
- Are current commercial truck drivers or whose MOS was as a heavy truck operator in the service.

After certification of your CDL, you will enter a Lily training program to fine-tune your skills. Lily has three specific programs for veterans:

1. Veterans whose MOS was as a heavy truck driver in the military can apply for our transitional training program.

- This program will provide three to six weeks of fine-tuning your existing skills for the demands of the marketplace.
- During training, you will be paid $800 per week and enjoy company benefits.
- Upon graduation, you will join a current Lily operation and can expect annual compensation from the $60s to high $70s.

2. Veterans who join Lily with prior commercial truck driving experience can expect preference in the employment process.

- Enjoy first class equipment.
- Be honored as one of “Lily’s American Heroes” and enjoy compensation from the mid $60s to high $70s.

3. Veterans interested in management careers are encouraged to apply to Lily’s management training program.

- You will receive in-depth training in all aspects of the dedicated transportation business and be assigned to a senior executive who will be your mentor and counselor as you begin your career.
- This is a ten-week program and participants enjoy full compensation and company benefits.
- Upon graduation, you will be assigned your first management role in a Lily location.

We pledge to integrate, train and retain you so we can succeed together. This training curriculum is fully paid by Lily and will not deplete your GI Bill benefits.

Veteran Drivers: In exchange for your full scholarship with pay and benefits during training, all we ask for is a minimum one-year commitment in an over the road assignment.
